DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Specifically, Applicant is required to define each of a single species of the at least one unsaponifiable component from avocado oil, a single species of the at least one unsaponifiable component from soya bean oil, lupin oil, or mixtures thereof and a single species of method (for example, a single indication from claim 49 or a single method of claims 50, 51 or 52. Currently, claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Election/Restrictions Proper

MPEP §809.02(d) states “[w]here only generic claims are presented, no restriction can be required except in those applications where the generic claims recite such a multiplicity of species that an unduly extensive and burdensome search is necessary.”. Here, the claims recited such a multiplicity of species that an unduly extensive and burdensome search would be necessary if all of the claimed species were to be examined simultaneously.

The present claims are directed to a method of stimulating the expression of TGF-beta. Present claim 1 for example provides a variety of possibilities of indications to be treated such as osteoporosis or bodily processes to be modulated such as the differentiation of nerve cells.

Further, as shown by the following classifications, a majority of the combinations encompassed by the present claims have acquired a separate status in the art. For example, if the method comprises furan derivatives it would be classified in class 514 subclass 449, whereas if it was comprised of fatty alcohols it would be classified in class 514 subclass 762. Similarly, the method of modulating nerve cell differentiation is sufficiently different from the method of treating osteoporosis or arthritis that a search of both would put an undue burden on the examiner. Notwithstanding that the classification of some of the active agents is co-extensive, all of the claimed compounds are patently distinct and fully capable of supporting separate patents.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Inventorship Notice

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
